

SAN FRANCISCO

Fri. Feb. 13<sup>5</sup>76.

~~In the Patricia Hearst trial, in San Francisco,~~

Earlier

- F B I agent Thomas Padden ~~was the~~ final witness

~~today~~ for the prosecution; <sup>today told</sup> ~~telling~~ how he ~~was~~ was assigned to the Hearst case at the outset and followed it right through till he captured the defendant last September.

On cross-examination, Padden then saying he was convinced at the time of Miss Hearst's kidnapping <sup>that</sup> she was <sup>indeed</sup> in grave danger. ~~Also~~ Also saying this was the first bank robbery he ever investigated - where the perpetrator identified himself or herself by name. Further telling how when Miss Hearst was finally in custody - she all but collapsed.

and now this -

ORLANDO FOLLOW WHITE HOUSE

The President <sup>today flew to</sup> ~~then flying to~~ Orlando - to ~~make~~ <sup>for</sup> his first campaign appearance in Florida; ~~planning~~ <sup>for</sup> two days ~~of~~ <sup>he will</sup> campaigning there in an effort to ~~see~~ ~~up~~ win <sup>the</sup> Florida's March ~~thirteenth~~ Ninth primary.
The President <sup>Ford</sup> ~~one~~ of five candidates - criss-crossing the Sunshine State this weekend - the competition including ~~the~~ George Wallace, Jimmy Carter, Scoop
Jackson and Ronald Reagan.

WHITE HOUSE

Before leaving
~~At~~ the White House ~~the start of another~~ ~~confrontation with Congress.~~ } President Ford <sup>today</sup> vetoed

~~Today~~ - the new six billion dollar public works bill.

As he did so
~~The President~~ saying: "While this is represented as the solution to ~~our~~ our employment problems - in fact, it is little more than an <sup>election pork barrel.</sup> ~~election pork barrel.~~

A bill that "has so many deficiencies - it would do more harm than good."

~~And now.~~

DALLAS

The death of one of the foremost opera stars of all time - is reported today from Dallas.

Lili Pons born in France - but later becoming a

U S citizen ; during World War Two, an inspiration to both countries - receiving the highest honors that each could bestow; besides starring at the Met she

- becoming<sup>d</sup> world famous ~~by means of~~<sup>via</sup> radio and ~~films~~<sup>the screen</sup>.

~~And~~ Now - the final refrain.

Lovely Lili Pons - age seventy-one.

LAGOS

At Lagos in Nigeria - an attempted coup today by a group of army officers calling themselves "young revolutionaries". They seem to have failed ~~though~~ and, at last report, Nigerian strong man General Mohammed <sup>still seems to be</sup> ~~apparently still~~ in command.

HELSINKI

~~In~~ Finland <sup>has</sup> ~~today~~ a nationwide police strike - and a one-day rail strike; <sup>These</sup> all but paralyzing Helsinki and other major cities. The police ~~are~~ demanding a fifty percent pay hike; the railroaders - attempting to stem an erosion of work rules. The government therefore <sup>is</sup> urging Finland's five million residents to stay at home and stay in doors after dark. ~~A spokesman saying. "In this situation - we need common sense - cooperation and peaceful minds."~~

OIL

Plans for off shore drilling in search of oil along the East <sup>Coast have at last been</sup> ~~Coast were~~ approved ~~at last~~ by the U S Environmental protection agency. A spokesman saying the E P A is concerned about possible oil spills and other hazards - but <sup>that</sup> ~~adding~~ the potential for meeting our energy needs is too great to ignore.

GEORGETOWN

From the government of Guyana, formerly British Guiana - an order today banning the showing of any film ~~4~~ that features "Kung-fu, karate, horror, sex or ~~and~~ violence!" Prime Minister Burnham saying the only movies to be allowed hence forth will be those "positively helpful" to Guyana's future development."

The new ban drawing plaudits, ~~what's~~ ~~more~~ from parents, educators, from practically everybody but movie distributors, <sup>who say it's</sup> ~~The latter saying it's~~ ~~extremely~~ difficult to find "positively helpful" films
~~then~~ <sup>pay to view</sup> and harder still to get anyone to ~~watch~~ <sup>match</sup> them.

And now this in -

CHARLESTON

~~Many if not most U S cities are planning bi-centennial celebrations this year; but one of the~~ ~~biggest of~~ <sup>The</sup> bi-centennial programs at Charleston, South Carolina; ~~where a whole series of events~~
~~are~~ <sup>S</sup> recalling the key role ~~that~~ Charleston played in the American Revolution. It was there, ~~for example,~~ ~~that~~ a British invasion force was met ~~in~~ and conquered - in June of Seventy Six; thereby helping to speed the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

~~One of the advisors in the Charleston program by the way - The President Emeritus of the Citadel, my old friend General Mark Clark of~~
~~The famed~~ World War Two <sup>fame -</sup> ~~hero - also demonstrating~~
~~he's~~ still a man of courage; <sup>ed</sup> ~~donning~~ panty hose to play George Washington in a ~~recent~~ re-enactment of Washington's visit to Charleston. Come to think of it Gen. Mark Clark does look like Geo. Wash!

~~Joe Namath - eat your heart out.~~

And now for C -
