

Thursday, February 28, 1974

CAIRO

From Cairo and Washington - a joint announcement today telling of the resumption of full diplomatic relations between the U. S. and Egypt; ending the breach that developed during the Six Day war in Nineteen Sixty Seven.

Egypt's President Sadat - publicly praising Secretary of State Kissinger who was standing at his side. And Sadat is urging Syria to work out, with Kissinger, a military disengagement on the Golan Heights.

The one-time General further noting that Dr. Kissinger was the first foreign official he had ever met - while wearing civilian clothes. Observing that a "new era" has now begun. Adding that President Nixon has been invited to visit Egypt - and is expected to accept.

PRESIDENT

President Nixon spoke today - at a young Republican conference in Washington; again saying he'll veto the Emergency Energy Bill - just passed by Congress. He insists it - would only result in longer gas lines and rationing.

He also told the young Republicans "You can take pride that you supported the men and policies - that put an end to the war which was here when we came into office." Adding that in the next three years, "we can make great progress in world peace - and on the home front; moving forward toward prosperity - without war, and inflation." "Keep your confidence," said he - and there will be a Republican in the White House not only for the next three years but for eight years after that."

When he finished - they ~~started~~ chanting over and over - "three more years! - three more years!"

WASHINGTON FOLLOW PRESIDENT

The Executive Committee of the Democratic National Committee today heard their National Chairman, Robert Strauss, say it was the Democrats themselves who re-elected President Nixon - as he put it: "By their petulance, bitterness and rancor."

He also said an out of court settlement has now been reached - in a civil suit filed against the Committee to Re-elect the President. This - in connection with the Watergate break-in. The Democrats said to have agreed to settle - for seven hundred and seventy thousand bucks.

NEW YORK

The selection of a jury was finally completed today for the trial of former cabinet officers John Mitchell and Maurice Stans; thereby clearing the way - for new indictments in the Watergate case; maybe by tomorrow.

CBS news in Washington has learned that no indictment will be directed at the President of the United States. However it is understood that the Watergate Grand Jury is preparing a strong statement dealing with the President's involuement in the Watergate and that this will be presented to Judge Sirica.

ADDIS ABABA

Addis Ababa - the Lion of Judah bowed today - to the demands of his mutinous troops. Emperor Haile Selassie ordering immediate pay raises - for all members of the Ethiopian armed forces.

SAN FRANCISCO

At the meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in San Francisco the subject today was - aging. Dr. Nathaniel Calloway of the University of Wisconsin observing that average life expectancy has increased ~~and~~ dramatically in recent years. Noting, however, that "no one has been made to live longer" - <sup>but</sup> ~~rather~~ we have kept individuals from dying early."

Dr. Calloway ~~therefore~~ urging "more financial support - for basic gerontology. - "Let us hope," said he, "that future studies will aid in extending life" rather than merely prolonging it.

STREAKING

The newest college fad - ~~as you may~~ have heard - ~~to that of~~ <sup>it's</sup> "streaking" ~~or~~ <sup>or</sup> running nude -

"through the groves of academe." The "streakers" at first, men only; but now a few girls - are getting into the act. At least one college observer noting,

Bill, that "streaking" has reached epidemic proportions,

~~as anyone can see.~~

SAN DIEGO

~~So Famed Comedian~~ <sup>tonight</sup> Bob Hope is receiving another award, ~~tonight~~ in San Diego. This one - a bit special; <sup>it's</sup> the International Brotherhood award of the National Conference of Christians and Jews; in recognition of his G I entertainment tours - down through the years.

Another way of saying: "Thanks for the memory, Bob."