

L.T.-Odds. Thurs, May 26 - '60.

The vote at the United Nations, today, was no surprise. The Security Council - rejecting the Russian demand that the United States be condemned for aggression. The vote - seven to two. Only the Soviets and Communist Poland - voting for the ~~XXXX~~ resolution. Tunisia and Ceylon - abstaining.

The rejection - a foregone conclusion. But the proceedings were enlivened by an exhibit, which American Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, presented.

Replying to harsh invective in an address by Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko, Ambassador Lodge told how a secret microphone was installed in the office of the U.S. Ambassador in Moscow. The microphone installed - just where?

Well, Henry Cabot Lodge produced a replica of the great seal of the United States, which once hung above the Ambassador's desk, showing the Security Council - the electronic device for spying, hidden - under the beak of the American Eagle.

The espionage was discovered in Nineteen Fifty Two. The great seal - taken to the State Department in Washington. Kept - as a memento.

PRESIDENT

President Eisenhower approves - of the Senate inquiry into the dramatic events that preceded the collapse of the summit ~~for~~ conference. This morning, he had a conference at the breakfast table with congressional leaders. At which Senator Fulbright of Arkansas, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee - gave an outline of the plans of his committee, To look into the charges - of administration mistakes ~~and~~ and blunders. All - on a non-partisan level. The President - gave his okay.

Last night, in his radio - television appearance, he stated reasons for what was done ~~in~~ in the affair of the U-2. Today, he told members of Congress, that Khrushchev, in his weird behavior - may have acted under pressure.

"He may" said the President, "be under pressure - by the Stalinists and Chinese."

Which would accord with a fairly general surmise - that Khrushchev's policy of getting along better with the West was opposed by old-line Stalinists and the Chinese Reds.

This opposition - using the U-2 misadventure, ~~to~~ To compel

Khrushchev to make a change - and wreck the summit.

PLANE

At Wiesbaden, Germany, a news interview - with the nine Americans returned from captivity in Communist East Germany. One important question - how did the C-47 transport happen to go straying into the Red area? The pilot, Captain James Lundy, has been grounded by the Air Force, while they consider the ~~questioning~~ question.

Today he said - the reason was faulty weather information. An incorrect report - about the wind.

"We were told at Copenhagen" says he, "that the winds were Easterly - and, instead, they were strong westerly winds."

Flying from Copenhagen, bound for Hamburg, he supposed - that easterly winds would blow him away from the border of the Iron Curtain. But, instead, ^ethe wind from the West carried the plane - into ~~the~~ Communist East Germany, where they were forced down by Red fighter planes.

The nine Americans were well treated, ^{and} Today ^{ed}relating - how the men played volley ball with the Russians. The one woman - helped by a Russian woman. Then, before being released, they were given a party - by the Russians.

JAPAN

In Washington, administration officials are wondering - should President Eisenhower go to Japan? Or should his visit ~~xxx~~ be cancelled - or postponed? No wonder there's doubt - considering the news from Tokyo, today. A climax - of eight days of anti-American demonstrations.

A vast mob of two hundred thousand, headed by left wing students - gathered at the Parliament building, shouting - against the Japanese American Security Treaty, and against Premier Kishi. With an additional chorus of "Eisenhower, stay home." The disturbances, more and more - a howl against the President's projected visit.

(Today, Premier Kishi was virtually besieged in the Parliament building - while ten thousand police held that enormous crowd in check. Not so much violence - mostly snake dancing and yell^s. With the ~~■~~ repeated refrain - "Eisenhower, stay home.")

Similar scenes in other cities of Japan. The estimate being - that as many as two million people were in the ~~in~~ demonstrations today.

In spite of all this, the Tokyo government insists - that President Eisenhower's trip should not be called off. They say - they can maintain order, and assure him a good reception. When he arrives on June Nineteenth - if he does.

In Washington, a quandry. If President Eisenhower's Japanese trip is cancelled, or postponed - it would look like a victory for the Communists. But, on the other hand, if his visit should run into trouble - it might be still worse.

MOROCCO

Morocco has a political novelty - a King who is also a Prime Minister. His Majesty, Mohammed Fifth, today - installed as the head of the cabinet.

Heretofore, the King has, in theory, been above politics. But the Moroccan government got into such a confusion of political feuding, that Mohammed Fifth figured -- he'd better take the job of Prime Minister, himself. With his son, the Crown Prince - as Vice Premier.

So, today, the Monarch sat on his throne in royal state - presiding as chief of a new ministry.

HOLLYWOOD

Uproar in Hollywood - and all because of Charlie Chaplin. Who has been a stormy figure - in so many controversies.

51 1/2
The capital of movieland - creating something new, by way of ballyhoo. Called "The walk of fame". A boulevard, inscribed with names of motion picture celebrities. The pavements - honoring one long list of movie stars, fifteen hundred of them.

You can guess any number of names - engraved on the highway. But there's one you'll surely think of - and it isn't on the list. Charlie Chaplin! He's omitted - and that's what causes the uproar.

52
Harry Sugarman, President of the Hollywood improvement Association, explains - that money for ^{the} "Walk of Fame" was donated by property ~~owners~~ owners, who say they'll withdraw their contributions - if Charlie Chaplin is honored. They cite his alleged sympathy with Communism, and his criticism of the United States. As he lives - in exile in Switzerland.

But a host of Hollywood celebrities, past and present, retort who belongs on the "Walk of Fame" if not the greatest motion picture comedian? Although they disagree with his politics.

Producer Sam Goldwyn says: "I don't believe he's a Communist. I believe he's a capitalist - and I ^{know} ~~KNOW~~ him better than anybody else."

Dick, Sounds as though Sam Goldwyn had business dealings with Charlie Chaplin.

RAILROADS

The New York Central - negotiating for a ~~major~~ merger with two other large railroads. The Chesapeake and Ohio - and the Baltimore and Ohio.

If the merger were to go through, it would create the greatest rail system in the United States. With more than thirty thousand miles of track - and assets of about five billion dollars. A ^{vast} railroad system - operating in the most populous parts of this country.
