SAN FRANCISCO

For Patricia Hearst and her former comrades in arms, William and Emily Harris - we hear of another round of arraignment today.

The Harrises case heard first - but they were quickly remanded to jail in lieu of half a million in bond each - which they have been unable to meet. They were also ordered to face a preliminary hearing a week from today.

Next - Miss Hearst. The hearing still in progress at this hour - but her parents hoping they will soon have her home again.

Wild line

Here now with the details - my CBS colleague

Harold Dow....

F B I FOLLOW SAN FRANCISCO

~~Earlier in the day~~ - a suggestion that the ~~capture~~ capture of Miss Hearst - was "almost an accident or a fluke;" ~~a suggestion~~ ^{was} heatedly denied by F B I Director Clarence Kelly - during a visit to Kansas City. Kelly saying ~~it was~~ the F B I's intensive nationwide investigation ~~that~~ finally led to the identification of Wendy Yoshimura as an associate of Patty Hearst;" and ~~then~~ led to the San Francisco address ~~where~~ ^{of} the two young women, ~~had taken refuge~~.

Kelly also expressed "great relief" that people will no longer be able to ~~ask him~~ ^{say} ~~as they have for the past year or so~~ "why can't you catch Patty Hearst?" He stressed ~~that~~ ^{he said is} however, the F B I's role ~~was not~~ ^{is} not to persecute ~~nor to~~ inflict any punishment - but to bring to justice those who are charged. " The Hearst arrest further proving ~~he~~ ^{he added -} ~~said he~~ ^{is} - "that despite all a fugitive forever."

OKLAHOMA CITY

~~On the political front - President Nixon flew~~ Ford in the

~~today to Oklahoma City - where he made a speech, prepared~~

left, of a speech

~~at the Oklahoma State Fair, where he was~~ again blasting Congress

- for failing to enact his energy program. The President saying we are ~~thus~~ running "the reckless risk - of placing our national livelihood and security in the hands of others." Adding: "That doesn't represent American ~~independence~~ independence, self-reliance,

or the pioneering spirit; - it is just plain chicken

and I don't think Americans admire it."

~~The President will also address~~ Next a Republican fund-raising dinner - and then fly on to California,

~~for some golfing and two more days of politicking.~~

INDEX

The U.S. cost of living index was up again last month - but just barely; only two tenths of one percent - according to figures released; the smallest monthly increase - in more than two years. The White House warning however - against undue optimism. A spokesman saying "the underlying rate of inflation" - is still "a good deal higher."

SACRAMENTO FOLLOW OKLAHOMA

At Sacramento Lynette Fromme pleaded not guilty today - to a charge of attempting to assassinate the President. The defendant also requesting a ~~re~~ reduction - in her present three hundred and fifty thousand dollar bail. Motion denied. The Judge then ordering a psychiatric examination - ~~to be~~ ^{then a} ~~followed by~~ trial November fourth.

BEIRUT

By order of the Governor - a dusk to dawn curfew in mid-town Beirut. It had barely gone into effect - when Parliament square was shaken by two explosions; and snipers were shooting at anything that moved. The Lebanese government is still undecided about using ~~no~~ troops. Meanwhile, warring Moslems and Christians were opening up with small arms, mortars and machine guns - with the fighting spreading to other areas.

FAVERGES

~~This next from~~ ^{At} Faverges, France, ~~about~~ an eighteen year old gunman ~~who~~ seized five hostages in a ~~local~~ bank, ~~And~~ ~~youth~~ threatening to kill ~~his~~ ~~prisoners~~, one every half hour, ~~unless~~ ~~he~~ ~~were~~ given a million and a half in cash and a get-away car.

French authorities assuring him - they would comply,
and they did.

Somehow though - they managed to stall him for five hours. And finally after talking with the mayor of Faverges over the phone - he surrendered to police. Officials saying the youth had figured out how to get the money ~~all right~~ - but somehow forgot to figure out what he'd do with it once he got it.

The problem now solved. And his future assured,
~~it would seem~~, for twenty years or so, ^{in stir.}

And now —

CULVER CITY

From Culver City, California - ~~the story of~~ twenty-five year old Juan Cabral; a hold-up victim - stabbed in the heart; ^{had} ~~with~~ no pulse and no blood pressure - apparently dead - by the time he was delivered to a nearby hospital. But the doctors ~~there~~ refusing to accept the inevitable, ~~instead~~ ^{ed} opening up his chest, plugging up a one inch tear in his heart - and then bringing him back with electric defibrillation and medication.

Juan Cabral today listed in fair condition. - ~~which isn't~~ ^{Not} bad for a man who just died.
