

PEKING

Wed. Oct. 22 - 75.

At a farewell banquet tonight for Henry Kissinger in Peking - ~~the~~^{the} exchange of toasts ~~was~~^{were} said to be "unusually cool." Chinese Foreign Minister Chiao ~~was~~ describing his talks with Dr. Kissinger as "useful" and, "frank;" ^{which} in diplomatic circles ~~is said~~^{is said} to ~~be~~^{be} an indication ~~of~~^{of} serious disagreement. The Chinese - as ~~you~~^{we} know, ~~are~~^{are much} ~~bitterly~~^{bitterly} opposed to U S detente with Russia.

~~In reply to a~~^{In his} toast ~~from~~^{is said} Dr. Kissinger ~~in~~^{to have expressed} ~~to have expressed~~^{effect} a gentle rebuke to Chiao. ~~Said he:~~^{Said he:} "We will nurture our relationships" ~~said he~~^{said he:} "by respecting each other's views regarding our national interest." Dr. Kissinger ~~adding~~^{adding that} however, ~~he~~^{he} was "satisfied" with his visit - and ~~preparations~~^{that} are going ahead for President Ford to visit China after Thanksgiving.

WEST BERLIN

Governor Wallace ~~of Alabama paid a visit~~ ~~today to~~ the Berlin Wall - ^{said} ~~there saying~~: "If anyone wants to know about Communism - ~~they ought to~~ come see this."

^{by the} West Berlin
At a luncheon given ~~him by~~ ~~the West Berlin~~ government - Wallace also ~~made a speech~~, recalling J F K's famous memorable Berlin ~~"Ich bin ein Berliner"~~ speech. "I am not trying to be melodramatic" - said he - "but, I feel, too, that I am a Berliner." But as he left for Paris he didn't say "Ich bin ein Berliner."

YORK

Famed British historian Arnold Toynbee - dead today at his home in York, England. Toynbee perhaps best ~~is~~ known for his twelve volume series called - "a study of history." Also, a critic of what he called "the dehumanizing of modern life - with people being processed, being ~~made~~^{put} into cards to punch through a computer, ^{and} treated as non-human."
~~things~~ But a self-described "non-pessimist" ^{he} once ~~said:~~ "I have just enough faith in western man's political common sense - to expect he will not liquidate himself."

Arnold Toynbee - age ~~ninety-six~~ eighty-six.

STANFORD

From Stanford University - some advice today to college grads seeking jobs - in what is now considered an "employers" market. Stanford researchers saying those who make out best - are neat, well dressed job seekers who are also "enthusiastic and sincere." The same for men - and women.

*At the ~~same~~ end of the scale - those who
show up wearing jeans, shorts or sandals - have dirty fingernails - if they're men, have long hair and beards - or, if they're women, fail to wear bras.*

CHICAGO

In Chicago - a business man's law seminar - with the emphasis on how to thwart kidnappers.

F B I special agent Thomas Green telling of ~~what~~ a kidnap victim - who ate greasy chicken and left his finger prints ~~everywhere~~ everywhere. The F B I thereby tracing his ^{movements} ~~movements~~ and he eventually ~~escaped~~ escaped unharmed.

"Our ideal victim" - said the F B I man or as Colonel Sanders might say - "finger lickin' good."

WASHINGTON

At a planned parenthood convention in Washington - a warning today that teen-age pregnancies are sweeping the nation. About seven hundred and fifty thousand last year - ^{with} ~~and~~ the figure ~~is apparently~~ still on the rise.

Dr. Gerry Oliva of Oakland also telling of girls aged nine, ten and eleven - regularly asking for birth control devices. Dr. Oliva going on to say - it's not enough ~~to~~ merely to make contraceptives available. These girls must be educated - "they have to learn to say no."

BEIRUT

Two American Embassy officials in Beirut were seized today - apparently by leftist Moslems. The missing pair identified as Charles Gallagher of Roanoke, ~~the~~ Virginia and William Dykes of San Jose, California; ~~why they were taken - nobody seems to know as yet. An Embassy spokesman saying - "There has been~~ no word from the kidnappers. - ~~either direct or indirect."~~ Adding: "We are in touch with Lebanese authorities - and they are doing what they can."

CAPITOL HILL

~~On Capitol Hill~~ - The Senate today twice defeated measures - aimed at breaking up the big oil companies. The majority view ~~perhaps best~~ expressed by Senator Fannin of Arizona, who said:

"Bigness in itself is not bad." ~~Adding: "If companies are furnishing a public service in the best interest of the country" - that's not "bad" either.~~

VENUS

An un-named Russian space craft today made a soft landing on the Planet Venus. The pictures sent back indicate Venus is rocky rather than sandy, as previously thought. As for signs of life - none expected, none found.

And now for CBS news...
